

LOCAL AND STATE ITEMS.

The Spring term of Middlebury College closes next week. Junior exhibition occurs on Tuesday evening, April 24th.

Mr. C. P. Whitney of Westminster had a pair of steers, one year old on the 20th ult. The building now to be taken down was built in 1714, and enlarged in 1833. Within its walls several generations have worshipped, many of whom, with their pastor, sleep in the adjoining churchyard. The corner stone of the new edifice was to be laid on the 5th inst.

MUSTERED OUT.—Another lot of major and brigadier generals were honorably mustered out of the U. S. service by an order issued from the War Department, dated the 10th inst. Among them was Brig.-Gen. Stannard of this State.

ELOCUTIONS ON SENATOR FOOR.—A resolution was introduced into the U. S. Senate on Friday, by Senator Poland, for the printing of 6,000 copies of the eulogies on the late Senator Foote, together with Dr. Sumner's sermon.

Mrs. Jeff. Davis was in New York, Tuesday, on her way to Canada to visit her children at school there.

George Peabody, the monomous American banker in London, will sail for this country on the 19th, with whiskey, poached eggs and morphine.

Dover.—Two shots belonging to Edwin Corse of Dover, strayed away last fall and were given up as lost. But a few days since they were found in good condition in the woods of Mr. Cutting of Wilmington.

—The Misses Lee are also supplying a want long felt in this village and are favorably located. See advertisement.

—We are indebted to Hon. G. F. Edmunds and Hon. J. S. Merrill for valuable papers.

DISGRACED RIOR.—On East day Officer Crumpton and posse were set upon near the Court House in this village and severely handled by an infuriated mob of drunken Irishmen, while taking a refractory prisoner to jail who had been arrested for breach of the peace. This prisoner, Robert Manney, was rescued, but retaken on Saturday. The principal rioters escaped. Three of them were from parts unknown but had been about the streets all day "spoiling for a fight." The others it is supposed were workmen at the North Middlebury marble quarry. All of them against whom there was positive proof slipped away before a warrant could be issued for their arrest. Mr. Crumpton was very badly bruised, and his assistants were more or less injured. On the whole we must confess that the mob triumphed.

Manney was yesterday brought before Justice Stewart on the charge of assault and battery, and fined twelve dollars and costs, H. S. Foote appearing for the State and Ira W. Clark for the prisoner.

THE NEW PRESIDENT OF MIDDLEBURY COLLEGE.—It is understood that Rev. H. D. Kitchell, D. D., of Chicago, who is to become President of Middlebury College, will leave his present settlement over the Plymouth Church in Chicago, in June.

The friends of Middlebury College must be well pleased with Dr. Kitchell's acceptance of its Presidency, as he is one of the best scholars, as well as one of the ablest men of the country. There are many earnest friends of the institution, who have labored gratuitously and contributed liberally for its permanent success, and we believe the new President will prove an efficient aid to their efforts.

—Rutland Herald.

Dr. Sylvester Wilson of Fletcher, was recently found dead in his bed—cause, excessive intemperance.

A young American lady, brought up in the Christian faith, joined the Jewish Church at Chicago a few days ago.

The Christian Inquirer, speaking of Universalists, says: "They seem to think that whoever believes anyone will be damned, deserves to be damned for his belief; and whoever does not believe that all men will be saved is himself in danger of being lost."

The Baptist Church has more members South than North, although this denomination is not ecclesiastically united and governed as the sects which the war has sundered.

The Barre Baptist Association will hold its annual meeting with the Baptist church in Groton, Wednesday and Thursday, the 13th and 14th days of June, commencing at 10 o'clock, a. m. Rev. R. Smith is appointed to preach the annual sermon, Rev. A. C. Woodruff, substitute.

FIGHT AT ST. ALBANS.—Two butchers, E. L. Hubbard of Franklin and Wm. Mitchell of Sheldon, got into a discussion last week, in which a knife in the hands of Hubbard was inserted through the coat collar and vest, into the neck of Mitchell. The wound was not serious. Hubbard was arrested and held in the sum of $300 until May 16.

FATAL RAILROAD ACCIDENT.—A serious railroad accident occurred near Williston, on the Central Road, early Friday morning last, occasioned by the running of a bridge 20 feet in length, which spanned the carriage way. The fire took place in the night, and the night express train going north, due thereat, to meet the undamaged car. Those having charge of the damaged car, and the engine, were all killed. All other passengers were saved.

Bishop Hopkins of Vermont confirmed a large class of candidates of the congregation of St. John's Church, in Washington, D. C., recently.

Rev. John L. Jenkins of Vermont, has accepted a call from the Congregational church at Gainesville, N. Y.

CACCIOLETTI'S HAIR LIFE RESTORES HAIR.—It is the original color removes Dandruff and all other impurities from the hair from premature death. Containing medicated oil, it is unsurpassed for dressing the hair promoting a luxuriant growth, and leaving it soft and glossy. For sale by all Druggists, Price One Dollar. Box 158, Brooklyn, N. Y.

ERROS OF YOUTH.—A gentle man who suffered for years from Nervous Debility, "Senile Decay," and all the effects of youthful indolence, will, for the sake of others, give his secret to all who desire it, the receipt and directions for making the simple remedy by which he was cured. Sufferers wishing to profit by the advertiser's experience, can do so by addressing JOHN B. OGDEN, No. 13 Chamber St., New York.

STRANGE BUT TRUE.—Every young lady and gentleman in the United States can hear something very much to their advantage by getting mail (free of charge) to inform the undersigned. Those having fear of being humbugged will do well to note this card. All other will please address their obedient servant,

JOHN F. CHAPMAN, 83 Broadways, New York.

ALEXANDRIA SEMINARY.—A correspondent of the Connecticut Churchman says, Alexandria Seminary has nine or ten students now on its rolls, and seems to be re-opening its old life. It suffered greatly from the loss of property during the war. A large part of its library was saved by being packed up, and stored in Alexandria, but many volumes had been previously abstracted and some valuable sets spoiled by the loss of single volumes. The Seminary has not yet obtained the indemnification asked for from the War Department, or had not at last accounts.

The Christian Times, of this city, last week made the following announcement: "To-day we come to our readers with what is probably the last number of The Christian Times. In its stead, they will next week receive 'The Episcopalian', formed by a union of this journal and the Philadelphia Episcopalian Recorder, and which will be published both in New York and Philadelphia."

—There is no denying the fact that E. R. Clay keeps quite an assortment of all goods in his line as can be found in any store in the State. See Clay's column.

An adjourned meeting of the Addison County Wool Growers' Association will be held at School House Hall, Vergennes, on Saturday, April 28th, at 10 o'clock A. M.

—The Union Graded School proposition meets with general favor. There will be a full attendance this (Wednesday) evening at the meeting in the Town Hall at 7½ o'clock. We hope no one will forget the hour.

We would call attention to the advertisement of the new millinery and bonnet store of William Slade & Co. We have long needed another institution of this kind and wish the new firm abundant success; but it is needless to wish it, for Mr. Slade's business tact and Miss Ford's experience and good taste will command it.

—The Misses Lee are also supplying a want long felt in this village and are favorably located. See advertisement.

—We are indebted to Hon. G. F. Edmunds and Hon. J. S. Merrill for valuable papers.

DISGRACED RIOR.—On East day Officer Crumpton and posse were set upon near the Court House in this village and severely handled by an infuriated mob of drunken Irishmen, while taking a refractory prisoner to jail who had been arrested for breach of the peace. This prisoner, Robert Manney, was rescued, but retaken on Saturday. The principal rioters escaped. Three of them were from parts unknown but had been about the streets all day "spoiling for a fight." The others it is supposed were workmen at the North Middlebury marble quarry. All of them against whom there was positive proof slipped away before a warrant could be issued for their arrest. Mr. Crumpton was very badly bruised, and his assistants were more or less injured. On the whole we must confess that the mob triumphed.

Manney was yesterday brought before Justice Stewart on the charge of assault and battery, and fined twelve dollars and costs, H. S. Foote appearing for the State and Ira W. Clark for the prisoner.

—Rutland Herald.

—The Misses Lee are also supplying a want long felt in this village and are favorably located. See advertisement.

—We are indebted to Hon. G. F. Edmunds and Hon. J. S. Merrill for valuable papers.

DISGRACED RIOR.—On East day Officer Crumpton and posse were set upon near the Court House in this village and severely handled by an infuriated mob of drunken Irishmen, while taking a refractory prisoner to jail who had been arrested for breach of the peace. This prisoner, Robert Manney, was rescued, but retaken on Saturday. The principal rioters escaped. Three of them were from parts unknown but had been about the streets all day "spoiling for a fight." The others it is supposed were workmen at the North Middlebury marble quarry. All of them against whom there was positive proof slipped away before a warrant could be issued for their arrest. Mr. Crumpton was very badly bruised, and his assistants were more or less injured. On the whole we must confess that the mob triumphed.

Manney was yesterday brought before Justice Stewart on the charge of assault and battery, and fined twelve dollars and costs, H. S. Foote appearing for the State and Ira W. Clark for the prisoner.

—Rutland Herald.

—The Misses Lee are also supplying a want long felt in this village and are favorably located. See advertisement.

—We are indebted to Hon. G. F. Edmunds and Hon. J. S. Merrill for valuable papers.

DISGRACED RIOR.—On East day Officer Crumpton and posse were set upon near the Court House in this village and severely handled by an infuriated mob of drunken Irishmen, while taking a refractory prisoner to jail who had been arrested for breach of the peace. This prisoner, Robert Manney, was rescued, but retaken on Saturday. The principal rioters escaped. Three of them were from parts unknown but had been about the streets all day "spoiling for a fight." The others it is supposed were workmen at the North Middlebury marble quarry. All of them against whom there was positive proof slipped away before a warrant could be issued for their arrest. Mr. Crumpton was very badly bruised, and his assistants were more or less injured. On the whole we must confess that the mob triumphed.

Manney was yesterday brought before Justice Stewart on the charge of assault and battery, and fined twelve dollars and costs, H. S. Foote appearing for the State and Ira W. Clark for the prisoner.

—Rutland Herald.

—The Misses Lee are also supplying a want long felt in this village and are favorably located. See advertisement.

—We are indebted to Hon. G. F. Edmunds and Hon. J. S. Merrill for valuable papers.

DISGRACED RIOR.—On East day Officer Crumpton and posse were set upon near the Court House in this village and severely handled by an infuriated mob of drunken Irishmen, while taking a refractory prisoner to jail who had been arrested for breach of the peace. This prisoner, Robert Manney, was rescued, but retaken on Saturday. The principal rioters escaped. Three of them were from parts unknown but had been about the streets all day "spoiling for a fight." The others it is supposed were workmen at the North Middlebury marble quarry. All of them against whom there was positive proof slipped away before a warrant could be issued for their arrest. Mr. Crumpton was very badly bruised, and his assistants were more or less injured. On the whole we must confess that the mob triumphed.

Manney was yesterday brought before Justice Stewart on the charge of assault and battery, and fined twelve dollars and costs, H. S. Foote appearing for the State and Ira W. Clark for the prisoner.

—Rutland Herald.

—The Misses Lee are also supplying a want long felt in this village and are favorably located. See advertisement.

—We are indebted to Hon. G. F. Edmunds and Hon. J. S. Merrill for valuable papers.

DISGRACED RIOR.—On East day Officer Crumpton and posse were set upon near the Court House in this village and severely handled by an infuriated mob of drunken Irishmen, while taking a refractory prisoner to jail who had been arrested for breach of the peace. This prisoner, Robert Manney, was rescued, but retaken on Saturday. The principal rioters escaped. Three of them were from parts unknown but had been about the streets all day "spoiling for a fight." The others it is supposed were workmen at the North Middlebury marble quarry. All of them against whom there was positive proof slipped away before a warrant could be issued for their arrest. Mr. Crumpton was very badly bruised, and his assistants were more or less injured. On the whole we must confess that the mob triumphed.

Manney was yesterday brought before Justice Stewart on the charge of assault and battery, and fined twelve dollars and costs, H. S. Foote appearing for the State and Ira W. Clark for the prisoner.

—Rutland Herald.

—The Misses Lee are also supplying a want long felt in this village and are favorably located. See advertisement.

—We are indebted to Hon. G. F. Edmunds and Hon. J. S. Merrill for valuable papers.

DISGRACED RIOR.—On East day Officer Crumpton and posse were set upon near the Court House in this village and severely handled by an infuriated mob of drunken Irishmen, while taking a refractory prisoner to jail who had been arrested for breach of the peace. This prisoner, Robert Manney, was rescued, but retaken on Saturday. The principal rioters escaped. Three of them were from parts unknown but had been about the streets all day "spoiling for a fight." The others it is supposed were workmen at the North Middlebury marble quarry. All of them against whom there was positive proof slipped away before a warrant could be issued for their arrest. Mr. Crumpton was very badly bruised, and his assistants were more or less injured. On the whole we must confess that the mob triumphed.

Manney was yesterday brought before Justice Stewart on the charge of assault and battery, and fined twelve dollars and costs, H. S. Foote appearing for the State and Ira W. Clark for the prisoner.

—Rutland Herald.

—The Misses Lee are also supplying a want long felt in this village and are favorably located. See advertisement.

—We are indebted to Hon. G. F. Edmunds and Hon. J. S. Merrill for valuable papers.

DISGRACED RIOR.—On East day Officer Crumpton and posse were set upon near the Court House in this village and severely handled by an infuriated mob of drunken Irishmen, while taking a refractory prisoner to jail who had been arrested for breach of the peace. This prisoner, Robert Manney, was rescued, but retaken on Saturday. The principal rioters escaped. Three of them were from parts unknown but had been about the streets all day "spoiling for a fight." The others it is supposed were workmen at the North Middlebury marble quarry. All of them against whom there was positive proof slipped away before a warrant could be issued for their arrest. Mr. Crumpton was very badly bruised, and his assistants were more or less injured. On the whole we must confess that the mob triumphed.

Manney was yesterday brought before Justice Stewart on the charge of assault and battery, and fined twelve dollars and costs, H. S. Foote appearing for the State and Ira W. Clark for the prisoner.

—Rutland Herald.

—The Misses Lee are also supplying a want long felt in this village and are favorably located. See advertisement.

—We are indebted to Hon. G. F. Edmunds and Hon. J. S. Merrill for valuable papers.

DISGRACED RIOR.—On East day Officer Crumpton and posse were set upon near the Court House in this village and severely handled by an infuriated mob of drunken Irishmen, while taking a refractory prisoner to jail who had been arrested for breach of the peace. This prisoner, Robert Manney, was rescued, but retaken on Saturday. The principal rioters escaped. Three of them were from parts unknown but had been about the streets all day "spoiling for a fight." The others it is supposed were workmen at the North Middlebury marble quarry. All of them against whom there was positive proof slipped away before a warrant could be issued for their arrest. Mr. Crumpton was very badly bruised, and his assistants were more or less injured. On the whole we must confess that the mob triumphed.

Manney was yesterday brought before Justice Stewart on the charge of assault and battery, and fined twelve dollars and costs, H. S. Foote appearing for the State and Ira W. Clark for the prisoner.

—Rutland Herald.

—The Misses Lee are also supplying a want long felt in this village and are favorably located. See advertisement.

—We are indebted to Hon. G. F. Edmunds and Hon. J. S. Merrill for valuable papers.

DISGRACED RIOR.—On East day Officer Crumpton and posse were set upon near the Court House in this village and severely handled by an infuriated mob of drunken Irishmen, while taking a refractory prisoner to jail who had been arrested for breach of the peace. This prisoner, Robert Manney, was rescued, but retaken on Saturday. The principal rioters escaped. Three of them were from parts unknown but had been about the streets all day "spoiling for a fight." The others it is supposed were workmen at the North Middlebury marble quarry. All of them against whom there was positive proof slipped away before a warrant could be issued for their arrest. Mr. Crumpton was very badly bruised, and his assistants were more or less injured. On the whole we must confess that the mob triumphed.

Manney was yesterday brought before Justice Stewart on the charge of assault and battery, and fined twelve dollars and costs, H. S. Foote appearing for the State and Ira W. Clark for the prisoner.

—Rutland Herald.

—The Misses Lee are also supplying a want long felt in this village and are favorably located. See advertisement.

—We are indebted to Hon. G. F. Edmunds and Hon. J. S. Merrill for valuable papers.

DISGRACED RIOR.—On East day Officer Crumpton and posse were set upon near the Court House in this village and severely handled by an infuriated mob of drunken Irishmen, while taking a refractory prisoner to jail who had been arrested for breach of the peace. This prisoner, Robert Manney, was rescued, but retaken on Saturday. The principal rioters escaped. Three of them were from parts unknown but had been about the streets all day "spoiling for a fight." The others it is supposed were workmen at the North Middlebury marble quarry. All of them against whom there was positive proof slipped away before a warrant could be issued for their arrest. Mr. Crumpton was very badly bruised, and his assistants were more or less injured. On the whole we must confess that the mob triumphed.

Manney was yesterday brought before Justice Stewart on the charge of assault and battery, and fined twelve dollars and costs, H. S. Foote appearing for the State and Ira W. Clark for the prisoner.

—Rutland Herald.

—The Misses Lee are also supplying a want long felt in this village and are favorably located. See advertisement.

—We are indebted to Hon. G. F. Edmunds and Hon. J. S. Merrill for valuable papers.

DISGRACED RIOR.—On East day Officer Crumpton and posse were set upon near the Court House in this village and severely handled by an infuriated mob of drunken Irishmen, while taking a refractory prisoner to jail who had been arrested for breach of the peace. This prisoner, Robert Manney, was rescued, but retaken on Saturday. The principal rioters escaped. Three of them were from parts unknown but had been about the streets all day "spoiling for a fight." The others it is supposed were workmen at the North Middlebury marble quarry. All of them against whom there was positive proof slipped away before a warrant could be issued for their arrest. Mr. Crumpton was very badly bruised, and his assistants were more or less injured. On the whole we must confess that the mob triumphed.

Manney was yesterday brought before Justice Stewart on the charge of assault and battery, and fined twelve dollars and costs, H. S. Foote appearing for the State and Ira W. Clark for the prisoner.

—Rutland Herald.

—The Misses Lee are also supplying a want long felt in this village and are favorably located. See advertisement.

—We are indebted